

TRAINING

I am looking at starting land Training at the end of the June (Saturday or Sunday Mornings) at possibly St.Helens Technical College or Sutton Leisure Centre. I will confirm where later in the month. Anyone who is interested please let me know as soon as possible.

I am also considering the possibility of a Holiday/Warm Weather Training for the half term school holiday in October 2008. I have been looking at Sham El Sheikh in Egypt, I've heard some great reports and found some cheap holidays - 1week all inclusive between £300 - £450 for an adult and £150 - £250 for a child, depending on the numbers interested we could possibly get free places. Please let the club know if you are interested. Also, to get this going we will need help from parents. If anyone is willing to help with things such as fundraising please let me know.

Many thanks

Ste Carr
